Visit us from August 19 through September 10 at PPP / PPAPER Space, in Zhongshan District, for a special exhibition of new and major works by twelve artists of the gallery. The exhibition will span various media, from installation, sculpture, video, to painting, photography, and works on paper.

With this project, the gallery aims at developing and anchoring the solid relationship it has built with Taiwan's vibrant cultural art scene over the past decade.

"In the past decade we've built up a very solid relationship with collectors in Asia," says Muchi Shaw, Director, Asia and based in Taiwan. "We are always looking for different projects in the region from museum exhibitions to art fairs, and have strong connections with collectors in Taiwan," Shaw says.

The exhibition presents works by: Martin Boyce, Thomas Demand, Simon Fujiwara, Ryan Gander, General Idea, Andrew Grassie, Pierre Huyghe, Ann Veronica Janssens, Gabriel Kuri, Roman Ondak, Philippe Parreno, and Ugo Rondinone.
